

Charlene Ann Studer

January 1, 1949 - April 26, 2013

Charlene Ann Studer, affectionately known as "Char," passed away on Friday, April 26, 2013 at the age of 64 after a long battle with lung problems.

She was born on Saturday, January 1, 1949 in Johnson City, NY to Reginald and Ann LaBare. Char spent most of her early years between Johnson City and Binghamton, NY prior to settling down with her family. A professional waitress and restaurant manager, she was most often seen with a smile on her face serving her guests at Take A Break Restaurant.

Charlene married her loving husband, Arthur, 24 years ago. They moved to Margate, FL 17 years ago for Art's job. They spent a lot of time at the American Legion with many of their friends. Charlene's most favorite pastime was playing Bingo and hitting the slot machines at the local Seminole Casino in Coconut Creek.

She is survived by her husband, Arthur Studer, Sr.; her son, Sean McEneny; step-son, Arthur Studer, Jr.; and 5 grandchildren. Also left to cherish her memory are his siblings, Glenda LaBare of Florida, Reginald (Cindy) LaBare of New York, Judy (Mark) Kaprael of Georgia, Debbie (Jerry) Harris of New York, Terry (Milan) Dedeck of New York, and Rosey (Wayne) Santos of New York; and numerous nieces and nephews. The family also wishes to acknowledge Bam Snow and Kathy Juriga for their continual love, support and amazing friendship throughout the years.

A Memorial Service will be held on Thursday, May 2, 2013 at 3:00PM at American Legion Post #157 in Margate, FL. A Memorial Mass will also be held at a later date in Binghamton, NY.

“ Char,
Such a sad week this week as my mother realized the news. I haven't spoke to you in months but I know you were worried more for my mom's health than your own. As I drove through JC yesterday for the first time in many years I am reminded of great memories of living there and you were a part of them. You and my mom must've been twins in another life, so much alike. It pains me to see how much alike even now as you both have battled similar health issues in the recent years. My mom is doing ok for now but I fear her path is right behind yours in the near future, you two hated being apart from each other, that is for sure. You are both to young to be going through this. Rest peacefully. Love, Butch (son of Kathy Juriga)

Aunt Char, I'm so glad that I was able to spend some of your last days with you. I felt like being there to support Uncle Art, my mom, and being a line of communication for your son, and your siblings is exactly what you wanted me to do. I cherish singing to you in your final hours, holding your hand and rubbing your beautiful head. I'm grateful that the memorie imprinted in my mind is not one of you during the end, yet it's one like the picture on my face book profie of your big beautiful smile. Your personality was magnetic and you always lit up a room. I'll cherish child hood memories like blue cheese and bacon cheeseburgers on your grill, going to country music bars and dancing, singing songs for you and getting all of your great advice when I needed it. You will always hold a special place in my heart. Thank you for being my moms best friend, thank you for being a great mom to my special cousin Sean, thank you for being a loving wife for Uncle Art, thank you for being an amazing sister to your sibling's, thank you for being a great aunt to your nieces and nephews and finally thank you for being the life of the party for all of your wonderful friends. You always new how to make us laugh and we will cherish the memories for ever. Aunt Char "You light Up My Life"

May God hold you and may you rest in peace.

Love, Kimmie
