“ Well my dear friend I did it. I managed to talk about you at your service and actually got through it (for the most part anyway). So what did you think???? I love you with all of my heart and I will miss you everyday. You will never know what you meant and mean to me or maybe you do. You were a one in a million person and I was deeply blessed to have you in my life for almost 13 years. Thank you for your friendship, your love and the joy you added to my life. I could go on and on but I know you would tell me to stop so I will. As the heart shaped flower arrangment said: "ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS"

“ In memory of Erna Edivan.

I just wanted to leave a brief note expressing how much our family will miss Erna. Erna's kindness and emotional support was of great comfort to our family when our father (Erna's cousin) passed away.

Erna enjoyed shopping for doggie fashions for our Golden Retriever Maddie. She was always amused by the photos of Maddie modeling the latest in hound couture.

We loved sharing our stories and adventures with Erna. Our family memories and the laughter we shared will be cherished.

We will miss her.
