

James Edward Ferger

May 11, 1957 - June 23, 2013

James Edward Ferger was born on May 11, 1957 in Brooklyn to James Disbury and Barbara Siber; one of 10 children. At the age of 2, Jim was adopted by his mother's husband, Edward Ferger.

James married his sweetheart, Maria, in East Northport, NY and together they raised 3 beautiful children. In the late 1990's, part of the family relocated to South Florida.

Jim was an extremely hard worker and owned Road Ranger Trucking, Inc. It was very important to him to be able to provide for his family and often worked long hours, day after day to ensure his family had all their needs met.

Sadly, he was unexpectedly taken from us to join the angels in Heaven on June 23, 2013 at the age of 56. He leaves his beloved wife, Maria; sons, Jimmy (fiance, Desiree) and George; daughter, Rosemarie; grandsons, Jimmy and Jacob; granddaughter, Lisa; and 9 brothers and sisters to cherish his memory.

Friends may call on Sunday, June 30, 2013 from 1:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M. at Coral Springs, Funeral Home. A Celebration of Life Service will be held at 2:00 P.M. Arrangements are entrusted to Coral Springs Funeral Home, 1420 N. University Drive, Coral Springs, FL 33071.

It's still strange & sad without you, but I know you still see everything & are watching over them. It's nice to see them smiling & celebrating happy occasions, I know that is what you'd want. You'll be in our hearts forever. Miss you big guy. Xoxoxoxo

“ Jim was a great man and although I was just getting to know him I loved him..... He was such a great grandfather and father and loved his family so much. He treated me like family right away and adored his grandson Jacob. While we were there visiting Jim would come home after a long day of work, get changed and grab Jacob to go play! What a great MAN! I will tell Jacob every chance I get what a fun and loving grandfather (Baba) he had. Jacob still till this day says "im the boss" daily and it reminds us of Jim.....We love and miss you!

I was just thinking about you, Jimmy and the fun times we had on Friday nights. I still find it hard to believe the tragedy that befell you your family and friends. I pray to God that you are resting in peace. Until we meet again, your friend, Mark.

“ Thinking of you...today we had a couple laughs about the things you'd probably be saying to all of us...those were good moments from today. We also visited your trucks today and laughed some more and shared some memories of you. I know you'd want us to laugh and be happy rather than dwell and be sad. George is doing a great job, I know (and I'm sure you do too) that he won't let you down. Send him some strength to find peace and move forward with his own life and goals, same for Rosie, Jimmy, and Maria. Everyone misses you a lot, come visit us sometime <3

“ Jimmy was there for me in my life when a lot of people weren't. He always treated me like his own daughter. I remember when we were all living in NY and we were about to move to FL and I was upset because I didn't want to go and Jim came to me so upset that I was upset and cried with me and told me that if I didn't want to move then we would all stay in NY. He was willing to stop his whole life to make me happy. I haven't seen Jimmy in a couple of years but it still devastated me when I found out he had passed. He was a great man and I have never met anyone in my life who was willing to work harder for their family than him. Heas a great father and also a great grandfather. My son Jimmy loved him so much and we will all miss him dearly.

“Dad I love you so much. I Think about you all the time. I will try not to dissappoint you, sometimes it's hard. But you taught me so many great things and I'm glad I listened to you. You are missed by all of us, and I know you are looking down on us smiling and happy. Like you always said life isn't fair sometimes, and that's the way it goes. And to always see the good in people and keep in mind not everyone thinks before they talk. I will try to keep anger at a minium and turn it into strength like you would want. Always thinking of you and I will take care of Mom. I guess people are right we are a lot alike, and I wouldn't change that for anything, good or bad. Love you, and I will see you soon.

*It's only been a week since this terrible tragedy hit the Ferger family, I still can't absorb that it happened or why, thoughts that keep running thought my mid is " JIMMY" was special in every way, he loved his family dearly, adored respected & deeply loved his wife Marie & cherished his friends. There wasn't a day I didn't see him he didn't have a new adventure that he lovingly spoke of them telling me what was going on with the Feger's. Ulisses & I will miss him more than words can say our love & prayers are with the Ferger's today & always. Our Sincerest Condolences,

“ Dear Rosie,
I was speechless and so saddened when I heard about your Dad. I am deeply sorry and send you and your family prayers for comfort in this time. I know what a special man your Dad was by the way you always spoke about him. Time will never take away the absence of his presence but it will help you as it goes by.

ECCLESIASTES 3 ~ There is a time for everything & a season for everything under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die.

We don't always understand it - but have to try to find comfort in knowing your Dad is in an amazing place called heaven and someday - you will see him there again, run into his arms and give him that big teddy bear hug!

My heart, thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ "There are men who fight one day and are good; others fight for a year and are better. There are some who fight several years and are very good. But there are those who fight all their lives, and these are the indispensable ones."

-Bertolt Brecht

We didn't meet James until a few years ago, when we moved in next door. In that short time we were able to see his character: his kindness and easy-going nature. We saw the great unity of his family, and the kindness with which they accepted us into the neighborhood will always be remembered and appreciated. He will be greatly missed by us all.

“ Jim, you have been like a second father to me for over 8 years. We've shared so many laughs, hugs, tears, good times, and great memories. The sadness I feel without you here is unexplainable, gone much too soon, but I know God only takes the best. I'll never forget you and the things you've taught me about love, life, and family. I'll really miss you cracking jokes at me, us eating peanuts around the dinner table, and you giving me all your empty cigar boxes to make something out of. You'll be proud to know you raised an incredible family and we are all lucky to have gained an angel to watch over us now. So much of you is in George and I know your memory will live on forever. Like you always said, "just take care if one another," and thats exactly what we'll do. It won't be the same without you. Miss you big guy. Love you. - Andrea

“ Sometimes we don't understand why such bad things happen to good people, but we have to believe that God has a plan. Jimmy was a wonderful father who loved his kids and a wonderful husband who would do anything for his wife. Over the past couple of days I've learned that Jimmy and his wife never spent more than a couple of days apart during their marriage, its beautiful to know that my husbands Uncle was a strong man not only in his words and actions but also as a father and husband. There's not alot of men like Jimmy he will forever be missed but never forgotten, Heaven is lucky to have you...God Bless David and Laura Duryea
