

Tyler A. Smith

December 7, 1992 - July 19, 2014

Tyler Allen Smith, 21, of Coral Springs, FL died July 19, 2014 in a tragic motorcycle accident. Tyler was born December 7, 1992 in North Miami, FL.

Tyler was an intelligent, humorous, good looking young man that loved life. He was one of the most compassionate people you could wish to meet. He was a do-gooder from the time he was a small boy. His desire was to change the world, one person at a time. Tyler also had a special place in his heart for animals.

Incredibly talented with computers, his favorite subjects related to math and the sciences. One of his favorite shows was Morgan Freeman Through the Wormhole because it related to fact-based science. In his free time, he played Xbox and found great joy in riding his motorcycle.

Tyler is survived by his mother, Lori Smith; sister, Stephanie (Engel) Becker; his half-brothers, Cody Smith and Nicholas Smith; and his father, Mark Smith. Also left to cherish his memory are his maternal grandmother, Janice Flaste; his paternal grandmother, Mary Mosher; and paternal grandfather, Ronald Smith. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Walter Flaste.

A Memorial Service will be held at Coral Springs Funeral Home on Friday, July 25, 2014 at 5:00 P.M. with a Memorial Gathering to follow.

“ My sweet Tyler, I remember getting that phone call a little over 21 years ago saying a beautiful boy was born into this world. I rushed to the hospital to get a glimpse of this precious child I considered my nephew. Living so far from you, I wasn't able to spend all of the quality time as wish I could have. Please know that you did and will ALWAYS hold a special place in my heart. My family & I will miss the holiday we spent together every year! We all love you so much sweet boy!! Aunt Jenny & Family

“ I will always and forever remember Tyler's innocence, his brilliance, his brutal honesty (goes back to innocence), but mostly I will remember his wit and ability to always see the glass half full. The term his "smile lights up the room" had to have been termed after him. Tyler would walk around a corner with a smile from ear to ear. And if you asked him what he was smiling about he usually shrugged his shoulders and said "nothing". Tyler was just a very happy little guy. I love you Tyler and thank you for letting us be part of your life. I know you stayed in good touch with David, and even though it's been a few years since I have talked to you, my world was better knowing you were in it. “ I remember the times we use to talk about what we would change once he became president and I was his first lady. I'll never forget all the times we would argue about what to name the ferret we were going to get once I moved back. When we were younger, it was really windy and stormy out one night so I made Tyler walk to my house just to walk with me to the office and drop something off. There's so many things that I could go on and in about, but I'll keep it as short as I can. Tyler, me, your mom and Stephanie are here to keep your happiness alive. You were the nicest, sweetest, most genuine person I've ever met. I miss you deeply and not a day goes by that I don't call your phone or text you, waiting for the answer I know I'll never get. I miss you so much and don't understand why you had to leave so early. We had everything all planned out. I'll keep you safe when worlds collide. Oh, and thanks for watching over me these past few days. I love you. Sleep well, my love. I'll see you again someday.

“ I will miss you Tyler. I watched you grow from a 13 year old boy to the amazing young man you became. My life is too quiet now. No more stereo/alarm clocks blasting from below (I guess you didn't need the same sound explosion after high school), no more sounds of tools clanging in the parking lot and no more motorcycle revs. Thank you Tyler for being so sweet, for taking Jake to the pool and teaching him to build a computer. You had the patience of a saint that day! Thank you for helping whenever I asked and always having a smile on your handsome face. Again, I will miss you.
With love,
Simone
