

Vincent J. Bartalone

September 27, 1954 - July 2, 2010

Vincent Joseph Bartalone, passed away on July 2nd, 2010 at Northwest Medical Center in Margate, Florida at the age of 55. He resided in Florida in his final years with his companion Sheralee Dekker, having spent most of his life New Jersey. He was born on September 27th, 1954.

He is survived by loving daughter Alannah Rae, son Richie, beloved sister Marie Cugler, brother-in-law Franny, two nieces Tammy and Pamela, nephew Franny Jr., and three grandchildren.

Vincent's heart was filled with love for all animals. You would find him walking around vintage car shows, lifting weights, planting flowers, landscaping, reminiscing with oldies music, and gazing at the ocean. He will be remembered by his quote "We Live" and was always on the go. Vincent will be deeply missed by his family and friends and will live in our hearts forever.

A Celebration of Life Gathering will take place on Friday, July 9, 2010 from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M at Savino Funeral Home & Cremation Services located 2950 North State Road 7 Margate, Florida 33063 (954) 977-5244.

A Celebration of Life Memorial Service will also take place during the gathering on Friday at 8:00 P.M.

For on-line condolences, photo gallery, life legacy, directions, etc. please visit www.savinofuneralhome.com and click on Vincent Bartalone's name.

Savino Funeral Home & Cremation Services is entrusted with funeral arrangements.

“ Just wanted to let you know Uncle Vincent that I still love and miss you every day. It was 4 years ago today that I got that dreadful call, but I guess the Lord needed you more than we did. Mom and Dad are doing ok. I hope to see them in August. I miss you voice, your laugh, your hugs, and how big your heart was. You are never ever forgotten. My heart still breaks because your not here anymore. Love you always and forever.

Your niece, Tammy

“ Uncle Vincent, just wanted to wish you a Happy 59th Birthday in Heaven. God knows he has a great man in his kingdom. However, I wish you were still with us. Time goes by so fast, I got to spend a month with Mom and Dad in August. 2 weeks in Florida and 2 weeks in Jersey. As you would say "Were Living", I think about you often and miss you everyday. I'm lucky to have had you as my Uncle as long as I did. In addition, it is football season and I think of you all the time. How you use to call for advice on games and would always pick the opposite team you were told to go with. Ha! Ha! Ha!

I will always love you. You're the greatest Uncle a girl could have.

Love, Tammy

“ Hi Baby, I am posting to your site today because yesterday was just too tough a day to do anything. I miss you so much every day. I can't believe that it has been 3 years. It seems like yesterday to me. It has been a rough year, a few times I thought we were going to get to be together again. All in all, the doctors tell me to take it easy but I guess there is some truth to not being able to live without the love of your life. The last close call was at the end of April and the doctors tell me that any more complications and they will have to do heart surgery, no choice. My mom gets really worried and I have had to move in with her, been here for some time now since I can't be alone, but I am not worried, if anything happens, I will just get to be with you and my dad. I know you are watching over me and I just wish you were still here with me. You are missed so very much and I know I sound crazy when I talk to you and ask you questions but hey, I get answers from you too. Thank you for being with me in my heart and soul and I will never forget our life together. May God keep you happy, healthy and safe in Heaven. I know you must have a beautiful garden with lots of butterflies and palm trees. I Love you and I miss you more than anyone can ever imagine. All my love to you always, Sheralee
P.S. You will always be my one and only. I will see you in my dreams. Love you. XOXO

“ Thinking of you, Daddy. Each and every day. I hardly get a chance to be online because of school presentations and starting my new job. I am preparing adults with disabilities for an "American Idol" themed show for them which I do a few hours a week. It's really nice working with them because they love music so much and it means so much to them! I am so thankful to be able to sing again after my surgery. We weren't sure if I was going to be able to because it was a throat operation, but I am feeling so much better and my voice is back to normal! My 22nd birthday was last week and mom set up a nice 50's themed bowling alley party right around the corner from your old apartment on Crooks Avenue which you used to take me to. It was a really nice night and I thought of you the whole time because I wouldn't have known about it if it wasn't for you! I miss you A LOT and not a day goes by where I don't think of you. One of my birthday gifts was a giftcard to download music and I downloaded "The Best of Doowop" and it's all the songs we used to hear at the car shows :) Chiller Theatre convention is coming up and Miss. Yvonne from PeeWee Herman is going to be there! Thanks for introducing me to all these great places that I can share with everybody! I am excited. I still can't believe Davy Jones is gone. I am so thankful I got to meet him with you and still have the pictures with him at the convention. He was such a sweet guy! I had no idea he was also living in Florida. I was shocked when I heard that! I love you DADDY!##imported-begin##Alannah Rae##imported-end##

“ Hey Baby, I know that it has been a long time since I have written but you know that I don't have a computer. I still can't believe that I am here without you by my side. There is not a day that goes by that I do not miss you and our time together. You were my rock and my best friend and I miss you so very much it still hurts. I long for the day that we will be together again. Things have been very difficult for me and everyone tells me that I need to move on. I try to explain to them that you and I were here together and I am missing the other half of me so how am I supposed to move on with out the half that completes me? I have finally begun to work again and I miss telling you about my day. I wish that we could trade places because it is so hard without you, you were so much stronger than me that I believe you would be able to handle the situation better than me. The friends we made here in Florida have been very helpful and supportive and they also miss you very much. I carry you with me where ever I go and I think people that I meet are tired of me showing them your picture and telling them how wonderful our life was together. I know that you are looking out for me and I sleep with your picture by my side every night. Be well and remember how much we love each other. You are my true love as you would tell me that I was yours. Our time together, even though it was 7 years, was too short. We had so many plans for our future together and now I only have the thought that one day we will be together again. As always, you are in my thoughts, my heart and on my mind every moment of every day. I miss you more than anyone can understand. Always remember that I LOVE you. Always,

“ Dear Vinny,

I know you never knew this, but deep down in my soul...

I was missing a family, happiness, a home.

All the crazy animals, you put me through...

The raccoon, the bobcat, almost a baby lion, just to name a few.

I still miss our Champy, Bo and Ubu too.

I remember the thirteen ducks... how they paraded around.

Alannah called one Oreo and one Mickey Mouse.

I won't forget the deer you tried to save one cold winter night.

You picked it up onto your truck, but it was not alone...

You told me to pet its head; it would be alright, until we got home.

I'll remember the cockatoo you couldn't understand...

He plucked all his feathers, until he was completely bare.

You read all the bird books and took him to the store...

They told you he was lonely...

I knew then there would be more.

You mentioned an owl; you told me they ate mice...

I got so upset, you finally took my advice.

What about the turtle that bit Alannah's lip?

You jumped from the shower; I ran down the stairs.

You tapped it as it dangled; she cried, I got so scared.

It finally let loose. That night we joked, we laughed into tears.

I'll never forget "Bengi" and "Turner and Hooch", oh___ how we cried...

Alannah reminisces "Night and Rodenthe". Diane Lane and your soft sensitive side.

Then a surprise birthday- in a limousine...

You took me to see Rod Stewart, first row...

And treated me like a queen.

I got so sick, I fell asleep... I did not remember a thing.

Another birthday, another surprise...6:30am, cousin Brucie, 101FM...

To my Nancy, the song "Til" opened up my eyes.

Your cards, your letters, I have often read...

Yes we had our insecurities and things were left unsaid.

Yes, we did and had so much together...

*And I was different from the rest.
You knew me from the inside...
Yes, you knew me best.
You were right all these years; I have always seemed to hide.
I can go on forever, but things I still hold inside.
But know those memories of us, our family, you took with you...
I will always remember them, FOREVER, too.
I am sorry our lives did not go as planned...
But I am certain God knew and you are now calm in God's hands.
I once asked God for a baby girl...
My prayer was answered and so was my world.
I thank you.
You once wrote Alannah always has a smile on her face. I promise to do my best to keep her the way you knew her to be.
I hope someday that butterfly will come near to her and she will know you are there and I will know she is safe.
I will teach her to plant flowers, as once you taught me...
Someday in her own garden, your pleasures she'll feel your smile she'll see.
She'll listen to the jukebox, one of your favorite toys.
I'm so glad she has those memories of the things you loved, your joys.
She'll sit at the piano, a gift you gave to me...
She'll sing the songs you both knew.
Her Teddy Bear will be next to her and the HEART that's made of you.
When she feels she's ready... she'll take you to the sea.
She told me you loved gazing at the ocean...
She always protected you... she just wants you to be happy.
I almost had the courage and comforting thought within...
I thought of that phone call and our friendship may soon begin.
Finally, we were happy...
She just wanted her mom and dad.
I know now these past years, the sadness you have endured.
If only I had that second chance to save you...
I found out much too late.
Now I am saddened...I can't believe you're gone.*

*Call that a twist in fate.
For you, we were always soul mates.
To others we were to be in old age.
We'll maybe God has another plan... and we will be soul mates once again.
You wrote, you are the most beautiful girl in the world to me.
We have a great daughter with a great personality.
I love her so very much.
We should thank God we have her.
I miss holding you, hugging you, talking, and your touch.
You wrote I still love you and you will always be my wife...
And again, I thank heaven for our Alannah Rae and twenty eight years in life.*

“ I cannot believe it has almost been a year tomorrow. It feels like only yesterday. I went to the Bronx Zoo this past week just like I did last year because I remember talking to you on the phone on the way home which was June 30, 2009. I remember this because I was so excited to come back and visit and we figured out a week that I could come back to see you. All my friends are telling me you'd be so proud of me. I am a Professional Wrestler in the making and had my first show last month. Mommy thinks I am crazy, but I am having so much fun doing it and know that you are right there with me!!! The Meadowlands fair is up. I went and brought you with me. I'll never forget you making me go onto the stage to get hypnotized! Everybody was laughing! Frankie Valli & the Beach Boys are playing around here in August and I want to go because I know it's something we could have went to together. I love and miss YOU so so so much! It's been very difficult at home but I think about you and all the good times and it makes me get through each hardship. I miss being able to call you and tell you things because it feels like I don't really have too many people here to listen to me, but I talk to you each night through my Teddy. “ Happy Thanksgiving, Daddy! I really wish I was able to spend the Holiday with you. Today in class, our teacher was giving out Tarot card readings. I had to think of a question that the cards would represent and when the cards revealed themselves, my teacher started to cry. Before I even told her the question she said: "Yes, he is". She then asked me what my question was and when I told her she told me that you were talking to me through the cards. The one card represented one who sees all with children underneath showing that you are watching over me and seeing everything. The card that represented me was the "Queen of Cups" which was the Queen of the ocean (or emotion) who stands for selflessness. One of the other cards was the "End of the World" card which my teacher told me meant karma to anyone who has wronged the "Queen of Cups" and that the "Eye" sees all and will be the one to judge when the time comes. It was such a wonderful feeling when my teacher hugged me and told me that you were speaking to me right at that moment letting me know you're looking over me. My question for the reading was "Is my Dad watching me and everything that has happened?" and I feel complete knowing the answer. I love you!!!!!!###imported-begin##Alannah Rae###imported-end##

“ Dear Uncle Vincent,

*I thought I would write to let you know how much you are loved and missed. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you and what you mean to me. I treasure my memories of you and keep them close to my heart. I still find it hard to believe that your gone, but never forgotten. Because of you, I made the trip to Florida when MOM and DAD moved. My Mom wanted me to drive and you convinced my Dad to let me go. I remember, you and I waiting for them to come out of settlement and how happy they were because of you. They couldn't wait to start their life with you in Florida. I thank you for the happiness and joy you gave them in those last 4 months. I just wish it could have been longer. I know they miss you more than words can say. I know I do everyday. My heart still feels the pain and loss, but I also remember the good times. How you made sure I saw the ocean before I left Florida, my last hug, kiss, goodbye, and I love you at the airport. I am so grateful that I had that time with you in Florida. I check on Mom and Dad quite often but I know they have an angel looking over them everyday. I also thank you for Alannah because she is a part of you and I know you live on in her. "WE LIVE" We can't say enough. Thank you for all that you have done for us all the years. You have been my Brother in law for more than 42 years and a grate brother to Marie for your whole life. I remember when you came to live with us, jist a kid 14 years old. For a few years we took care of you Loved you than and still Love you now. After a few years you took over and always looked out for us. We all know the many things you did for us. Many of them we would never have been able to do. You were always there for us and our childern. We Live here in Flordia because of you. There is not enought we can say about you. You are in our harts and mine everyday. Every time we go some place you always come up. It is still hard we miss you. We will always look after Alannah, she is a great girl and very careing.

HAPPY BIRTH DAY###imported-begin###Marie & Franny###imported-end##

“ Happy Birthday Vinny! I know our meeting was brief but with all the stories Alannah has told me since we started going out, I feel like I know a great deal about you. Having come back down to Florida to see you one last time in July, I was able to meet the rest of your family. Everyone had a story. I must have heard your whole life. You were a very nice person: kind, caring, a friend to everyone you met. Everyone loved you, most of all your daughter. Not a day goes by that she isn't thinking about you. For the last two months of summer we spent our time visiting the places that you and she once went to. She celebrates your LIFE everyday. You have a very strong daughter. She learned from the best. I know that you are watching over her and Nancy from where you are. They've got the biggest, best guardian angel this side of the Mississippi looking out for them... and that's you. Take care of Alannah from up there and her brother and I will take care of her from down here. She's in good hands. I really was great getting to know you. I wish this Birthday came with a card and not a memorial message. You'll live on in the hearts of everyone who knew you and I hope they celebrate your spirit till you are 100! May all your birthday wishes come true up there in the big blue. Rest in Peace, Sean Tulner###imported-begin###Sean Tulner###imported-end###

“ Hello Vinny, I hope you have a happy birthday! I know that you are watching down on your loved one, including Alannah, Nancy, and and the rest of your family. I have heard about everything that has happened, and even though we are all disheartened by the unfortunate circumstances that ensued, we are all holding strong together. We will all live our lives through you. Every time I see Alannah, I always see loads of pictures she has with you and the teddy bear with a heart of you in it! :)

“ Daddy,

There isn't a morning that I wake up to or a night where I fall asleep and don't tell you "I miss you" and that "I love you". I'd leave an entry on here every morning and night, but I know there is no reason to because you hear me already. I am writing an entry today because today would have been your 56th birthday. I wish you were here to celebrate it, but I know in my heart that where you are right now, you have no stress or worries. Deep down, I know why you had the worries you did even if they weren't yours to worry about. You always wanted to save a life; a person's or an animal's. There are so many secrets and thoughts you told me over the years, even the last time I saw you in May, but I always kept them to myself and always will because I'm just like you when it comes to making sure everyone is happy. I always knew where you were truly happy. I knew the smile you would have on your face, the tone of your voice, the way you laughed. I knew. I also knew your sensitive side. A few years back, you wrote a really long beautiful letter for me to give Mom that made me cry and smile at the same time, but you were too scared to give it so you threw it out. I kept that letter because I always wanted to read it over and over because I know how much it meant to you. I'm glad to say we still have all of your letters and cards you wrote over the years. One is about when you saw me as the Wicked Witch in "The Wizard of Oz" in 6th grade and how I fooled you because I played the part so well. I always looked forward to you being in the audience during my shows. I know, my most recent ones you couldn't be at but you always called me to ask how they went. It took me a lot of courage to go out and audition for shows this semester, but I took your strength and went for it and ended up getting a lead character in both shows! I know that no matter where I perform, you will always have the best seat in the house to watch me. You told me to go to school for what makes me happy and that is exactly what I'm doing even if I don't make any money right away. As you know, money never made me happy, performing and having family around to watch me is what always mattered most to me. I'm always using my outgoing personality which reminds everyone of you to carry me through success. Now, I look in the mirror and am proud of my italian "meatball" nose as I call it because you gave it to me and it serves as my unique trademark.

I also wanted to thank you for leaving me with a big brother who has the same weight lifting interest as you. At least I know that if I have a problem, he can definitely come and take care of it, hahaha. It is also a great feeling to know that I am an Aunt to a beautiful niece who wants to be a actress one day and two nephews already obsessed with sports. I am so thankful Sean was able to meet you in May with me. It means a lot to me knowing that we were together seeing you in Florida and how you said "I love you" before I took the flight back after we took our last photo together. That night I came home, I was crying for hours to Sean about how I already missed you, my Aunt Marie, and Uncle Franny. I'm glad Sean was able to be involved with our buffet dinner tradition and for my first time fishing with you and Uncle Franny and your great catch of the "Mahwi Wowi" fish! Each time I talked to you on the phone after I came back, you were helping me look for apartments in Florida that I can move into after I finish college in New Jersey. You had me writing down all these numbers to call and you sounded so happy knowing that I was serious about coming to live near you eventually. I was serious, too.

I went to the Lead East car show and brought you (my teddy bear) with me as you always brought me over the years. Many people at the car show came up to me saying how cute the teddy bear was and it made me remember going to all the car shows with you and keeping count of all the times one of your friends came up to you and said "CUZ!", but I always lost count because there were more people than I had fingers. For the f

“ Hi Baby~ Well, yesterday was the 8 week anniversary of my losing you and it was also our 7 year anniversary! What a horrible day for me. I miss you so very much and the days are not any easier without you by my side. Everyone tells me that I have to go on and do things but without you to do them with, there really isn't anything fun any more! Dakota's birthday was on Thursday so she is now 1 year old and it made me very sad that you were not here to share it with us. We both miss you and still can't believe that you are not just out at the store and will be back any minute. I know that you are watching over us and I hope you are not too upset with all that has gone on. I am trying to hang in there as you would want but it seems that every day it is something new that happens that upsets me so or makes me realize that you are not here with me and I just can't deal with it! I had a glass of champagne and a small meal for our anniversary but it is impossible to imagine spending the day without you~ we had said that by now we would be married and I wish that we had been able to get married all those times you said you wanted to. At least maybe I would find some comfort in knowing that others would realize how happy we were together and how much we wanted to be together forever! Well, I guess us picking up and leaving everything behind to go to Florida together should give some the understanding that the most important thing to us was to be together and that we left everything behind and we were so happy together in the life we made! I know I shouldn't let outside influences upset me but you protected me so much from such things that now I am left to deal with it myself and I am not that strong. To have lost you and then to deal with mean or hurtful people or comments is just too much some times. Well, I will try to just remember all the things you told me and the heck with what anyone else may think, you and I knew the truth~ we were one together. I will miss you and love you always and you are always in my thoughts. Please watch over me and Dakota and know that we miss you so very much and there will never be anyone that can fill the void left in our lives since you are gone. All my love to you always, I can't wait to be with you again. Happy Anniversary Baby~ Always, Sheralee xxxx oooo###imported-begin##Sheralee

“ Before I write to you, Vinny, I would like to address everyone who has lost you in there life. Before you post Amy of your thoughts on this MEMORIAL page remember why you are posting them. This is in our loving memory of vinny, think about what you say and how it might effect people reading this.

Now vinny, I am so glad my mother was able to meet you and that you guys spent the better part of 7 hears together. Whenever I talked to my mother she always seemed happier with you. It is unfortunate that you were taken so quickly from us. You and my mother had just moved to Florida and were making your own lives together. I never had a doubt in my mind that my mother wasn't being taken care of when she was with you. I know my little brother looked up to you and so did I. You were a great person Vinny and I am saddened that you are gone. It has taken me this long to write this in your memory. Thank you vinny for always being there for my mother and I will miss you. You are in my heart, thoughts, and prayers always.

“ Hi Baby,

*It is 6 weeks today since you are gone and everyone says that it will get easier~ I don't see how or when that will happen. The hurt in my heart is just as though it was yesterday that I lost you. Our friends have been wonderful trying to help ease my pain of not having you by my side. Mark & Rhonda, Gil, Paul, Donna, Mindy & Skip, Josie, Dick & Diane, Dougie & Fran, Athena & James and of course the boys, Aaron & Grant~ they have all been wonderful and are trying their best to help in any way they can but they know how much I miss you by my side. I have not been able to go to work but I am trying to be strong and take care of myself and Dakota. She misses you so very much, she does not understand where you are and why you are not home with us here you belong. I hope that you will continue to watch over us and you know I need your strength to get me through this. You spoiled me over the years as my protector and best friend, lover and confidante. Oh, how I miss you every minute of every day! My love to you always~ your "baby girl" Sheralee. I even miss you calling me "Norton" Ha Ha

“ To my beloved Vinny~

I have tried so many times to write my thoughts and feelings down on paper but it is so hard~ you know that there are no words to express what we meant to each other and what you mean to me. You are my world and the day we lost you, I lost my world. We were best friends, confidants, partners in everything, lovers and we completed each other.

It has been wonderful to hear all the kind thoughts and prayers from those whose lives you touched. Each person knew a side of you that you shared with them and they all loved you for that. I was blessed to know all your sides and I loved them all!

We had so many plans for our future together and I don't know what I am going to do without you here by my side. I am not complete without you. So many of our friends have said that it is so hard to see me and know that you are not beside me because they are so accustomed to seeing us together. If we were apart it was because I was at work and we were both waiting for me to get back home to you and our baby girl Dakota. Our home is so empty without you. Dakota and I miss you so very much it hurts. We look for you every night when it is time to go to bed and she sleeps by my side, waiting, as do I for you to be there with us where you belong.

I am so very happy that we were able to spend this last year and a half in Florida where we wanted to be. I am thankful that I was able to bring you the peace and joy you had with us here. I find some peace in knowing that even though it was too short a time, you were able to relax and not work day and night as you did in New Jersey. When you worked around the house, it was because you wanted to make our home perfect for us! I promise to do my best to take care of the outside of the house as you would want and I will make sure that the gardeners don't mess with the landscaping!

You know, my love, that my world will never be the same without you to share it with but I know that you are with my Dad and you are with those who loved you and have passed before. Please give me the strength and guidance to endure the time I must spend here without you~ I know that you will be waiting for me so that we can be together again. I don't know when that will be but until then you know you will always be in my heart and you will always be my shining star.

There was a card you gave me that I have always kept. In it you said, "Love is the words we say, Love is the things we do, Love is the dreams we dare, Love is the moments we share; Love for me is You." I will cherish the memories of all the things we talked about, the things we did, the dreams we had for our future and I will cherish each and every moment we shared because Love, for me, is you!" As we always said to each other, good times or bad, no matter what, we were one together and we made each other complete.

Until we are together again, my world will have an empty void that no amount of time will be able to ease~ we had so many plans for our future and you had just said that we can finally make definite plans~ we thought we would have so much more time together. 7 years may seem like a long time for some but for us it was not long enough, a blink of an eye.

Dakota and I send all our love to you and we can't wait until we can be together as a family again. Be well my sweetheart, rest and know that you are missed so deeply and that you are always in our hearts, thoughts and prayers. I wish so many things could be different but the one and only wish I could be granted is that I could be with you~

I will always love you Vinny~ my love, my fiance' and to many that knew us as we were, my husband. No piece of paper ever mattered to us, just so long as we were together. I promise we will be together again very soon. I know that you are watching over me and Dakota because Duckie has even come home to our new house and he stays with us every night.

I will never say "good bye" to you because I can not bear to think of you as being gone so I will just say, "I will be with you soon my love and I know that you will be waiting for me to join y

“ There are so many stories I can recall with Vinnie that are more amusing today than they were when they happened. On one occasion in the late 70's Vinnie, Nancy, Anthony, my son Danny and myself were on the way to a car show in Sussex when going down a rustic road there was a tortoise crossing the street. Anthony was driving and Vinnie in the passenger seat he insisted we stop and pick it up because he was afraid it would get hit by a car, we stopped, he ran out and picked it up, got back in and lo & behold the tortoise was so scared of us it began peeing all over Vinnie, the floor & seat, Vinnie started yelling to pull over since it seemed to never end, with that the tortoise was basically throne back into the woods and off we went with Vinnie soaked. Another time Vinnie found a baby raccoon and thought this was the best pet in the world. He brought it to my house and it insisted on continuously pulling my son's eye glasses off and throwing them on the floor. Well he soon found out this was not the best pet because when it matured it would attack him when he tried to feed or get close to it. And the final story was one he told us about the time he was showing Nancy a trick he taught their cock-a-too. He had it sitting on the counter while he was cooking sauce. He bent closer to the bird and was telling it to give him a kiss, with a blink of an eye the bird reached over and grabbed Vinnie by the lip, with that he picked up the spatula and hit(really tapped) it on the head. With Vinnie's lip now bleeding all over the place he knew never to get that close to the bird again. These are only a few of many stories that we are lucky to have to remember Vinnie. His love of animals, cars, oldies, & motorcycles are just a few things that made his life full.##imported-begin##Theresa Pollaro##imported-end##

Alannah loves wrestling, which I am know is because of you! If any man could protect his daughter, it would be you. Alannah was very proud of you. " Faces In The Clouds ".. October 6th, a cool crisp night.. I gazed upon a star. Amazed as tears filled my eyes... a face stared down from afar. I felt a sudden rush of joy... for his face was of my love. Who passed away a decade ago... protecting me from above. I also saw a kindly gent, a widow in a chair... A charming fellow in a hat, and I never felt a fear. So when and if you feel low...no reason to be so down. “ "Daddy' Little Girl"
He left this world knowing you love him.
He wanted to see your beautiful face.
His broken heart was mended.
And now he is in God's place.
Remember you gave him those memories, and the smile on his face.
And those cherished moments, he took with him.
And forever his little girl's embrace.
He will always be around you.
and as you look up above, you will feel the warmth he once gave you, and his tender love.
With these thoughts, you will never be apart, he was so proud of you, and always in his heart.
As you continue to grow, the emptiness will heal, and your daddy will still be there watching over his little girl.

“ We will miss you so very much. We still remember the great times we spent with you at our house on most of the holidays. I will especially miss the memories of watching you grow up, and working with you later in life. We were always there to help each other. Going to miss hearing you yell out hey unc were Livin or when you met someone you knew you would say hey Cuz whats going on. So now I hope you will be with all the loved ones that have passed on to a better place were I know you will be. Love you always Unc Bob.##imported-begin##uncle Robert & diane grecco##imported-end##

“ I knew you could not stop starrng and I knew you looked familiar...the pictures that night, the dancing we shared on the dance floor...I knew you were going to be a part of my existence forever...yes we fought, we made up and you made sure even if I was not going to be your girl, I was always going to be your friend...Bailed me out of car situations, talked on the phone for hours while you were working, we shared all our stories and yes even though I knew we had to keep it simple, you never stayed away...We had Italian food 2 weeks later danced the night away ...you called me from Vegas..always kept in touch oh how I wanted us to be"WE" in the 80's .or another life,or another place in time, but always loved our friendship. Vinny we had a blast I miss you already...you will always have my heart...I really know how sweet,kind and how much you care for others, pilgrim diner, Italian food, I will miss you..Wish I knew you moved I would have kept in touch or at least said goodbye always wondered what happened to vinnie not like this.. May you rest in Peace

XOXO,

“ Vinnie:
We talk about you everyday and the good times working together. We are all going to get together at one of your favorite restaurants and celebrated the "Cuz".

“ Vinnie...May God embrace you and lift the overwhelming sadness bearing on your loved ones. So unexpected, so unprepared for the sorrow ..seems there are no words to comfort those who love you. Hopefully in time we may speak of your memories without a heavy heart. Having experienced children losing their father..there's one thing I am certain of. Parents never seem to leave their child . Even in passing there are moments when we feel a comforting protected presence. Thank you for Alannah.. the most wonderful accomplishment in your life .###imported-begin###Bridgette,Jeremy,Britt,Krista and Dylan###imported-end###

“ There are so many stories and memories I share with you, Daddy. The little things like picking me up over the big rain puddles to singing all the oldies songs in your old cars. You always brought a smile onto everybody's face because of your big heart and the way you went out of your way for people you cared about. I'll never forget your smile and all the little things we used to do together from when I was a little girl until my finals years of being a teenager. You made me and I will always be here to make you proud. As you would always sing to me in the car when Frankie Valli came on, "Who loves you pretty baby?" and I will always remember the answer! I love you, Daddy!##imported-begin##Alannah Rae##imported-end##

“ Vinny was a great person to know. The first time I met him was back in the 80's when he was running a gym in Garfield, NJ called Bergen Barbell that I joined then.

He has given me some good memories that I could never forget. God rest his soul. He will be missed, but the memories live on forever.##imported-begin##Rich Domanski##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to the family. Vinny was a great person. I met him in New Jersey where I worked and every time he came in he lit up the place. I know he loved his daughter and grandchildren more than you can imagine, I heard about them every visit and saw pictures often. Remember him for who he was, a great person. I am sorry for your loss, there is no doubt that Vinny will be missed.##imported-begin##Allie##imported-end##

“ Vincent was 3 yrs older than me and we didn't have many family times together because of family problems back then. My veryShort & very few memorable times were up state NY at Aunt Jeanie & Uncle Franks house. I up there because of a sibling being born and Vincent would always find some way to make things fun for the short time visits our parents sent us up NY state.
Last I saw Vincent was 5 yrs ago at my Dads wake. He looked well and had his wonderful smile. Life is too short and we didn't much time as cousins because of family. I am glad I have a small memory of him and it always make me smile to think of him when we did have a small time as cousins when we were very young. Although we didn't see one another through life he will be always remembered and in my heart.
Rest in Peace, Vincent.
